

Erden Erol Ünlüer

M.D.Prof.

I was born in 1969, Istanbul and graduated from Marmara University Faculty of Medicine.

My residency and associated professor rank were also in Emergency Department of Marmara University.

I have studied at Mount Clemens General Hospital in USA after finishing residency and worked as director of hospitals in Turkey Health Ministry both in second and tertiary care centers.

I am now the director of Emergency Medicine Department of İKÇ University Atatürk Research and Training Hospital.

I have studied on bedside ultrasonography more than fifteen years and published over thrity international articles as first name author.

I have given alot of both interantional courses such as in Jordan, Vienna, Portugal, India and nationally.